

2017/2018 YOUTH ART MONTH MUSEUM ARTWORK DISPLAY

MARCH
22-24, 2018

SEATTLE, WA

GUIDELINES

To participate in the Youth Art Month Museum artwork display please note the following:

The Council for Art Education sponsors the Youth Art Month Museum during the National Art Education Association Convention

The Museum includes a display of flags and banners, featuring winning designs from each participating state, along with a collection of student artwork

- Display Area: Each state is provided ONE 3' x 5' display panel
- Artwork: Works displayed should be primarily 2-dimensional: drawings, paintings, photographs, fiber, mixed media, and printmaking
- Photographs: Photographs of 3-dimensional (printed on photo paper) can be used
- Other Materials: Promotional materials, photographs of Youth Art Month events, student statements or other items representing Youth Art Month in your state can also be displayed
- Release Form: Students MUST submit a Student Artwork/Flag Release Form with their artwork

This is a display of original student work creations

Photographs of student work should NOT be used except as noted above in the guidelines

FINISHING

Refer to the Flag Resource list for companies that can make the flag design into a flag.

Works should be matted or mounted and ready for display (framing is not recommended)

Apply Velcro® (tooth side) to the back corners of the work before shipping – Fabric panels are used for the display, we cannot guarantee Velcro® will be available on site

SUBMISSIONS

Student Artwork and other display materials should be sent to arrive no later than March 2, 2018
